

GEOG - Geography

Although there is no graduate program in geography, the following courses are available.

Courses numbered 500 to 799 = undergraduate/graduate. (Individual courses may be limited to undergraduate students only.) Courses numbered 800 to 999 = graduate.

GEOG 510. World Geography (3).

A study of world regions including an analysis of each region's physical, political, economic, historical and cultural geography. Focus on a specific geographical problem for in-depth study and analysis. May not be taken if credit has been received for GEOG 210. Prerequisite(s): instructor's consent.

GEOG 530. Geography of Latin America (3).

General education social and behavioral sciences course. Physical, political, economic, historical and human geography of Latin America.

GEOG 542. Geography of Europe (3).

General education social and behavioral sciences course. Physical, political, economic, historical and human geography of Europe.

GEOG 550. Mapping and History (3).

General education social and behavioral sciences course. Cross-listed as HIST 550. This exploration of mapping and history studies how maps have shaped our understanding of the past and how our changing understandings of the past have shown up in maps. In this class, students learn to look critically at maps, what they convey, and how their own interpretations can shape mapping analysis. Students also gain an introduction to mapping technologies from hand drawn symbols on parchment to the latest in ArcGIS technology.

GEOG 570. Geography of Asia (3).

General education social and behavioral sciences course. An examination of the lands and peoples, climate, resources, and economic activities of the countries of Southwest Asia, South Asia, Southeast Asia, East Asia, Central Asia and their interrelations. Course includes diversity content.

GEOG 695. Special Studies in Geography (1-3).

An umbrella course created to explore a variety of subtopics differentiated by letter (e.g., 695A, 695B). Not all subtopics are offered each semester – see the course schedule for availability. Students enroll in the lettered courses with specific topics in the titles rather than in this root course. Prerequisite(s): junior standing.
