

Minor in Cybersecurity

The minor in cybersecurity consists of five separate classes which gives the student a foundation in networking, programming and scripting, as well as cyber operations. It is a great compliment to the following majors amongst others: computer science, criminal justice, psychology, game design and communications.

Program Requirements

The minor in cybersecurity consists of 16 credit hours of defined courses as follows:

Course	Title	Hours
AC 121	Cybersecurity Awareness	3
AC 222	Applied Computing Fundamentals	3
AC 321	Applied Networking	3
AC 322	Applied Programming and Scripting	3
AC 326	Cyber Operations	4
Total Credit Hours		16