

School of Oral Health

The School of Oral Health consists of the department of dental hygiene, and the advanced education in general dentistry residency program. The School of Oral Health offers degree programs leading to a Bachelor of Science in dental hygiene, and a postdoctoral certificate in advanced education in general dentistry.

For more information on the postdoctoral certificate, contact Dean Elledge, program director, at 316-978-8350.