WSU General - Honors (WSUN)

WSUN 102A. First-Year Seminar: Election 2016  3 credit hours General education introductory course. Examines the presidential election of 2016 as an example of democracy and citizen engagement.
Studies the election from the perspective of political science scholarship, and from the perspective of citizen involvement. Students learn how the contemporary presidential election process functions, why it matters, and consider what the results of 2016 mean for the United States and the broader world. Topic is the foundation for engagement with the learning environment of Wichita State University, the community in which we live, and the journey toward graduation and personal development.
