

BS in Computer Engineering

Program Requirements

A minimum total of 124 credit hours is required for the computer engineering program and includes the 66 credit hours of major courses that must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.000. All courses that are prerequisites to other courses must be completed with a grade of C- or better. In addition to meeting the requirements of the WSU General Education Program (<http://catalog.wichita.edu/undergraduate/academic-information/general-education-program/>) and the requirements of the College of Engineering, students in the computer engineering program must take the following courses:

- <sup>1</sup> Required major courses may also count towards General Education requirements. Students will need to select additional electives to reach 124 credit hours required for graduation with assistance from an advisor.
- <sup>2</sup> See the requirements of the WSU General Education program (<http://catalog.wichita.edu/undergraduate/academic-information/general-education-program/>). Starting in fall 2024, first-year college students must take a First-Year Seminar (FYS) within their first two semesters at WSU. The FYS course should be completed in either fine arts or humanities or social/behavioral sciences.
- <sup>3</sup> May count as a general education course.

Applied Learning

Students in the Bachelor of Science in computer engineering program are required to complete an applied learning or research experience to graduate from the program. The requirement can be met by completing the two capstone design experiences consisting of ECE 585 and ECE 595.
