

BA in Philosophy - Concentration in Pre-Law

Any student with a declared philosophy major is eligible for the philosophy pre-law concentration.

Program Requirements

A minimum total of 120 credit hours is required for the BA in philosophy with a concentration in pre-law. In addition to meeting the requirements of the WSU General Education Program (<http://catalog.wichita.edu/undergraduate/academic-information/general-education-program/>) and the requirements of Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, students must meet the following requirements:

The major requires a minimum of 27 credit hours of philosophy courses, at least 15 of which must be in courses numbered 300 or above. For the pre-law concentration, students are required to take four courses, one from each category listed below, for a total of 12 pre-law credit hours.

Each philosophy major must meet with a departmental advisor at least once a semester to plan or review a program of study. These programs are designed in terms of the individual student's interests and future plans. Up to 12 credit hours of philosophy courses taken before the decision to major in philosophy may count toward a major. Additional credit hours may be counted with the advisor's consent.
